

Japanese Government Scholarship for 2015 (Teacher Training Students)

The Government of Japan offers scholarship to South Sudanese primary and secondary school teachers at Japanese universities as research on school education under the scholarship for 2015 of the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology (MEXT) of Japanese Government as below;

- ✓ Qualifications: Applicants must
 - Have South Sudanese Nationality (military personnel are not eligible for application)
 - Be born on or after 2 April 1980
 - Be graduate of university or teacher training school
 - Have at least five year teaching experience (primary or secondary) in South Sudan as of April 1st.2015
 - Have a willingness to learn Japanese language
 - Have ability to do research in Japanese and adapt themselves to living in Japan
 - Be a physically and mentally healthy enough to pursuit study in Japan
- ✓ Term of Scholarship
 - 18 months (October 2015 – March 2017)
- ✓ Application Procedures
 - Detailed guidelines and application forms are available at the embassy's reception between 9:00a.m. And 11:00a.m Monday to Friday (except Saturdays and Sundays).
 - All applicants must read the guidelines carefully before application, and submit three sets of the following documents to the Embassy of japan by the deadline. One set is required to be original documents, and the other two sets can be photocopies thereof.
 - ✓ Application form
 - ✓ Placement preference form
 - ✓ 3 passport size photos (taken within last 6 months)
 - ✓ Academic transcript of each academic year of the last university attended (original)
 - ✓ Certificate of employment issued by the present employer(original)
 - ✓ Recommendation letter from the principle/headmaster of the school(original)
 - ✓ Medical certificate (original)
 - ✓ If any Japanese language qualification proof document available
- ✓ The deadline of the submission: 25 February 2015
- ✓ Contact
 - Ms. Victoria Atong Malek (Tell: 0959003147 e-mail: imi.malek@gmail.com)
Address: Palm Tree Resort, No. 705, 3-K South Tong Ping 1st Class, Juba, CE