

From the People of Japan

Food security crisis response assistance in 2017

Emergency food distribution and nutritional fortification for IDPs through WFP [$4.2 million]

Emergency health and non-food item intervention for IDPs through IOM [$1 million]

Emergency health emergency operations for the most vulnerable through ICRC [$1 million]

Prevention of nutritional crisis for refugee communities in Upper Nile through UNHCR [$1 million]

Earlier, Japan has made available $22.4 million for humanitarian and reconstruction assistance. Japan's aggregate assistance to South Sudan since the December 2013 crisis adds up to approximately USD 196.2 million.

For media inquiries, please contact Koji Ito at the Japanese Embassy via koji.ito-2@mofa.go.jp and +211 956 481 145.